FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

VIPD RESPONDS TO UNRESPONSIVE FEMALE AT POPULAR VI HOTEL

ST. THOMAS – On Sunday, August 11, 2019 at approximately 8:45 p.m., Virgin Islands Police Department officers of the Criminal Investigation Bureau were called to a hotel in downtown Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas, as a result of the discovery of an unresponsive female.

VIPD officers and Emergency Medical Technicians on the scene observed an unresponsive female in one of the hotel's room. VIPD Investigators gathered from a preliminary investigation, that the guests occupying that room discovered the unresponsive female in their room after returning at approximately 8:00 p.m.

Emergency Medical Technicians on the scene confirmed that the female displayed no vital signs and declared the death of the female. The cause of death is unknown, pending the results of an official autopsy. In addition, the identity of the female is being withheld until proper notification of next of kin is achieved. This case remains active and is presently under investigation by the Major Crime Unit of the VIPD.

Anyone having any information about this or any other crime please contact the Virgin Islands Police Department at (340)774-2211 ext. 5617, Major Crime Unit at (340)714-9830 or the Criminal Investigation Bureau (340)714-9807. You can also contact Crime Stoppers at 1(800)222-8477 or 911. We need your help and the entire community's involvement.
